

Information on travel to Japan

1 April 2011

According to the World Health Organization, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the World Meteorological Organization, the International Maritime Organization and the International Civil Aviation Organization, there is no restriction on travel to Japan, excluding damaged area by the tsunami.

For the latest information you can check on the following sites;

International Organizations

- ICAO (International Civil Aviation Organization)
Newsroom
<http://www2.icao.int/en/newsroom/default.aspx>
- IATA (International Air Transport Association)
Measures Imposed by Governments for Flights and Passengers from/to Japan
<http://www.iata.org/whatwedo/industry-affairs/japan-measures/Pages/index.aspx>
- WHO (World Health Organization)
Japan nuclear concerns
<http://www.who.int/hac/crises/jpn/en/index.html>

Organizations in Japan

- Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA)
<http://www.mofa.go.jp/index.html>
- Nuclear and Industrial Safety Agency (NISA)
<http://www.nisa.meti.go.jp/english/index.html>

Hokkaido Tourism Organization will continue to collect and offer accurate information regarding travel and safety. Please feel free to contact our office if you require any assistance.

Thank you for your support.

Kind regards,

Hokkaido Tourism Organization